

We, the Riverboat Days Board of Directors, would like to take this opportunity to thank all the businesses, organizations and individuals who help sponsor Yankton Riverboat Days, along with all of the volunteers and our families who assist in making this festival possible. An event of this magnitude does not happen by chance, and through the dedicated work of many people, we believe Riverboat Days has become one of the best celebrations in South Dakota!

On behalf of all the committees, all the volunteers, and the board of directors we'd like to welcome you to the 28th Riverboat Days Celebration!

Yankton Area Arts Welcomes Back Brulé

Yankton Area Arts is pleased to announce the return of Brulé & Airo to the 2011 Summer Arts Festival. Yankton Area Arts is partnering with Yankton Daily Press and Dakotan and The Days Inn to sponsor the South Dakota based music group.

Brulé & Airo is a multi award winning contemporary Native American group featuring a New Age/Worldbeat sound. Based in South Dakota, they have sold over one million CDs worldwide and have made media appearances with the Live with Regis and Kathie Lee television show, CNN WorldBeat, QVC, and others. Current band members include: Paul LaRoche on keyboards; Nicole LaRoche (Paul's daughter) on flute; Shane LaRoche (Paul's son) on guitars; Vlasis on percussion; Lowery Begay on traditional drum and Kurt Olson on drum kit. Paul, Nicole, and Shane are enrolled members of the Lower Brulé Sioux Tribe of SD. Lowery is an enrolled member of the Diné Nation.

Additional information on the Summer Arts Festival can be found at our website www.YanktonAreaArts.org.
