nity journalism, visual story telling and new media.

The successful candidate will be a great writing coach and a capable team leader. This is no desk job. You will lead your department of three enthusiastic writers by example, taking on the toughest stories and teaching others to do the same. You will have a beat and be expected to write and edit, coach and mentor, and direct the editorial department. In return, the editorial department will be yours with minimal interference by management or ownership. You must be proficient in the English language, AP Style, and be an experienced copy editor. You will be financially responsible for departmental budgets and goals. You must also see the value of covering a small, growing and active community with great photography and compelling journalism in a visually pleasing manner.

If you believe that all people have a story to tell, want to make a difference in your community, and feel that the work environment should be a positive place to spend your time, then we are looking for you.

1335 Other Employment

Minimum Requirements: Seven years of newspaper experience with increasing responsibilities.

We offer a competitive salary complete with quality and incentive bonuses, a generous benefit package including health insurance stipend, retirement package, paid time off, and a health club membership. The Buffalo Bulletin belongs to a federation of community weekly and daily publications with 22 titles located in Colorado, Montana, Wyoming, Idaho, Washington, South Dakota, and Nebraska. There is ample opportunity for advancement within our group of newspapers.
