ket," Zdorovtsov said. "This manual does just that.

The guide includes everything from tips on forming a planning committee, garnering community support and drafting market rules and by-laws to promotional opportunities, navigating regulations and implementing food safety practices.

Each chapter in the manual includes a profile of a market, vendor or program specific to South Dakota. The topics included in the manual are based the focus group session held with market directors and vendors, as well as the many inquiries that come to SDSU Extension by market directors, vendors and others.

Save $10 during June
The manual is available for purchase through the iGrow Store for $35. Through June 30, 2015 use the promotion discount code FM10 during checkout to receive $10 off the regular price. An online format can also be found at iGrow.

"A lot goes into establishing a new farmers market. By providing information from those who have done it, we hope to make the process a bit easier," Zdorovtsov said.

Make This A Reading Summer!

BY KATHY WIBBELS
Yankton Community Library

Monday, June 1, is our summer reading kickoff! Come in any time, register for the summer program if you haven't already done so, and pick up your reading packets. Then it's time to start reading! You earn a Book Buck for every 100 minutes you read and can earn up to forty Book Bucks throughout the summer. The Superhero Storehouse, where you can redeem your bucks, is open July 27-Aug. 1.

The theme for preschoolers and elementary age children is "Every Hero Has A Story." Join us on Monday, June 1, 1-3 p.m., during our open house featuring heroes from our community. Interact with local "heroes" and learn more about the services they provide.

Plan to attend a variety of programs featuring performers, puppeteers, movies, craft times and Super Hero Training Camp. Most Thursdays feature a LEGO Club with LEGO Robotics. Two special performers are here in June, a Magic Show at 1 p.m. on June 3 and Pockets Full of Fun at 3 p.m. on June 22. Story times are Monday at 6:30 p.m., and Wednesday and Thursday at 10:15 a.m. Toddler times are Tuesday at 10:15 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. Join us for super fun in June and July!!

"Unmask the Super Reader in You!" is the teen theme. Teens are invited to scale the Empire State Building by reading and completing tasks at the four building levels, with prizes awarded at each level. The teen kickoff is June 1, at 5 p.m. June 3-4 is the Babysitting Clinic in partnership with Yankton County 4-H. The clinic runs 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. both days. Registration and payment of the class fee is required to participate. Seats in the class are limited, so register today.

Attend the following teen events throughout June: "Avengers" on June 6, 2 p.m.; "Super Hero Trivia" on June 9, 2 p.m.; "Jeopardy!" on June 18, 3:30 p.m.; "Obstacle Course" on June 24, 4:30; Taekwondo on June 25, 3 p.m.; and the monthly TAB meeting on June 29, 7 p.m.

The adult theme, "Escape The Ordinary," features a Tic-Tac-Toe reading chart and a host of special events. Join us on June 2, 6:30 p.m., for The Big Bang Theory Trivia Night. Test your knowledge of this popular sit-com. Register as an individual or a team of two. On June 9, Arthur L. Rusch presents on his book "County Capitols: The Courthouses of South Dakota" at 6:30 p.m. Chef Staci presents "Escape The Ordinary Menu" items on June 16, 6:30 p.m. There is no cost for this program but you must pick up a ticket at the circulation desk as the class is limited to 20.

We'll end the month with two craft nights. On June 23, 6 p.m., make your own fairy garden with help from our crafty staff. There is a cost for this program and the class is limited to 15. On June 30, 6:30 p.m., we'll end the month with Yankton High School art instructor Mallory Schmidt as she presents a demonstration on the book sculptures her students completed as part of their coursework. These sculptures were on display at the library during the month of April.

Back by popular demand is the historic cemetery tour in partnership with the Dakota Territorial Museum and the Dakota Theatre. On July 7 at 6 p.m., ticket holders meet at the city cemetery to listen to re-enactors tell the stories of some of Yankton's citizens of the past. Tickets for this and all events can now be purchased or picked up at the library.

The Readers Anonymous book club will discuss "Inside the O'Briens" by Lisa Genova on June 9 at 1 p.m. This club, which is always open to new members, meets the second Tuesday of each month at the library.

Between the Lines book club will discuss Graeme Simsion's "The Rosie Project" on Tuesday, June 23, at 5:30 p.m. This book club, which meets on the fourth Tuesday of each month, is open to new members as well.

We have multiple copies of the 2015 One Book South Dakota choice, William Kent Krueger's "Ordinary Grace." Our Humanities discussion takes place in October, but we are happy to check out a book to you or your book club now.

We collected 31 boxes of cereal during our May Food for Fines. We are collecting spaghetti/sauce June 1-10, with all donations going to the Contact Center.

Friends of the Library will hold their monthly book sale on Saturday, June 6, 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Friends is always happy to accept gently used books for their sales. They ask that you not donate textbooks and encyclopedias.

Did you know that in 2014, we checked out 27,471 adult movies? At today's Redbox prices, patrons saved approximately $34,449.00!

You can contact the library at 605-668-5276 or e-mail kwibbels@cityofyankton.org. View us online at <http://library.cityofyankton.org>, visit us on Facebook by searching Yankton Community Library, or follow us on Twitter @YanktonLibrary.

Seeds to Educational Gardens in 2015

BROOKINGS, S.D. - Twenty-nine educational garden programs across South Dakota were awarded vegetable and flower seed packets from the SDSU Extension Seed Bank this spring.

Seeds were donated by Master Gardeners, seed dealers, individuals and 4-H clubs across the state to assist youth and adult programs that are utilizing gardens for educational purposes.

SDSU Extension stores the seeds and coordinates the seed bank effort.

Projects that received 20 seed packets included gardens for schools, learning centers, daycares, 4-H clubs or other non-profit groups, where the produce will be used as part of the program or freely shared with those in need in the community.

The awarded projects include a formal educational program with at least 15 participants. This year's awardees include:

- * Andes Central After School Program & Charles Mix County 4-H, Lake Andes
