Mission Hill Township Resolution

Whereas the Board of Supervisors of Mission Hill Township (N) approved to open and add the strip of land described below to the Township's road system and to designate it as an improved, minimum maintenance road:
A strip of land measuring 66 feet or 4 rods wide and 2640 feet long with the center of said right-of-way running north and south along the line dividing the east half of the northeast quarters and the west half of the northeast quarter and extending 33 feet or 2 rods to the east and 33 feet and 2 rods to the west of the center line running the length of the strip of land, in Section 16, Township 94 North, Range 55 in the 5th P.M., Yankton County, South Dakota.
And, whereas, the Board of Supervisors of Mission Hill Township (N) approved a proposal to install two cattle guards on the above named road, in keeping with legal statute and prescribed standards outlined by the Board.
Now, therefore be it resolved that the above described changes shall be adopted for the Mission Hill Township (N).
Voted of Board — Yes on Tuesday, April 26, 2011
Resolution is hereby declared adopted after being publicized for two consecutive weeks and after a lapse of thirty days, without further proceedings, unless appealed as provided by law.
