Guardians

Introducing Larry Nickles

After spending my days growing up around the fire station and chasing fire calls with my dad, I entered the Yankton Fire Department in June 1979 as a second generation firefighter/EMT. In 1981, I moved to Sidney, Nebraska for 10 years where I served as training and prevention officer for the fire department the entire time. In 1990, I moved back to Yankton and was fortunate to rejoin the Yankton Fire Department. My fire and rescue experience combined with fire apparatus and fire equipment sales and service helped me land the Assistant Chief/Fire Marshals position in 1996, allowing me to once again serve the citizens of Yankton. During my tenure I have attended the National Fire Academy in Emmetsburg, Maryland for inspection and prevention as well as numerous other schools and trainings. As Deputy Chief/ Fire Marshal, I am currently responsible for enforcement of fire codes, plans review, fire prevention, training of 40 volunteer firefighters and maintaining a fleet of 13 fire apparatus and our three fire stations as well as responding to all types of non emergency and emergency calls.

I enjoy working with the citizens we serve and appreciate the public support that is given to the volunteers and the fire department.
