

Pop Music Tribute Set For Sept. 19 At Gayville Hall

Mike Connor, left, and Boyd Bristow, right, seen here with Jim Groth before the trio's tribute to Bob Dylan and the Byrds in June, return to Gayville Hall on Saturday, Sept. 19, at 8 p.m. with bandmate Guy Gullickson for a '50's and '60's music show titled "A Blast from the Past: An Evening of Classic Pop and Rock."

GAYVILLE — Gayville Hall and veteran Sioux Falls musicians Boyd Bristow, Mike Connor, and Guy Gullickson present "A Blast from the Past: An Evening of Classic Pop and Rock" at 8 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 19, in Gayville. The show will celebrate popular music of the 1950s and '60s from such stars as Tennessee Ernie Ford to Bob Dylan and from Sam Cooke and Elvis to the Beatles. The Sioux Falls musicians grew up during that era and love to perform the great tunes of those times. Gullickson was an original member of the legendary 1970's South Dakota rock band, Dry Mustard, and performed in many other bands in South Dakota and Colorado. He performed with Connor in the Midlife Crisis Band in recent years. Connor, who attended the Berklee School of Music in Boston, has performed in the

"S.D. Acoustic Christmas" concerts for 20 years and in many folk and rock groups. He is on the board of directors of the S.D. Rock and Roll Hall of Fame. Bristow was in two S.D. Rock-and-Roll Hall of Fame bands, Blueberry Buckle and Red Willow, as well as the 1980's Nashville group he founded, The Travelin' Band, which backed country music stars on the road. Gayville Hall is at 502 Washington Street in Gayville. Call 605-267-2859 for ticket information.

Puppeteer Set For Vermillion Library

VERMILLION — It's true that dragons are too seldom, but we're happy that they will be making a special appearance at the Edith B. Siegrist Vermillion Public Library.

On Tuesday, Sept. 22, and Wednesday, Sept. 23, Markie Scholz and her Dragons Are Too Seldom Puppet Productions will drop by to share stories and fun with the children of the Vermillion community. Public performances of the show "In The Center of Things," will begin both days at 10:30 a.m. in the Kozak Community Room.

"In The Center of Things" is the story of Hedgy Hedgehog and his best friend Sally A. Wolf. Hedgy is forced into the Big Woods by the Niggle Naggles who constantly tease and pick on him. He must find his way home but not before he comes face to face with Groll the Troll who is trying to be a friend, a bullying caterpillar, a sly fox who wants Hedgy to do his work for him, and a nasty wind with an awful attitude. Through-out Hedgy's adventure, Sally and Groll try to help Hedgy learn how to handle bullies and get out of the Big Woods and back home safely.

Additionally, there will be a hands-on puppet-making workshop for school-aged children on Tuesday from 3:30-5 p.m. in the Kozak Community Room. All materials will be provided.
